Other Things Besides Water Seek Their Own Level.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1889.

LITTLE TINA HERE'S A KOW-D'YE DO.

Influential People Interesting Themselves in Her Case.

The Father's Good Character Proven Beyond Doubt.

Subscription Books Being Distributed All Over the City.

THE OUTRAGE MUST BE REMEDIED.

The Necessity of "The Evening World's" Amendment Plainly Apparent.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

676, Laws of 1881, and Chap. 46, Laws of 1884), when commitment shall have been made, shall be subject to review by any court of record, upon certiorari on the facts and the law, and in such a proceeding the commitment order or judgment may be affirmed or reversed or modified in such manner and to such extent as may seem best, or a reliearing of the charge ordered.

As the result of untiring efforts of the friends of the unfortunate Weiss family more than one hundred and fifty subscription books are now in the hands of charitable ladies, and the work of raising money to bring back little Tina Weiss to her parents is going on

MA meeting of the Lady Feresters' Society was held yesterday at the house of Mrs. Kopelowich, 202 East Broadway, and a large number of subscription books were distributed, and the ladies are entering enthusiastically into the work.

Mrs. Kopelowich is doing a great deal to arouse interest in the case, and has secured the co-operation of President Hutkopf, of the Eldridge Street Synagogue Association, which is one of the most influential congregations on the east side.

He is going to engage eminent counsel to look after the legal interests of the Weiss

Rabbi Josephs speaks of the outrage which has been committed by Mr. Gerry's society in this instance in the strongest terms, and be is so indignant over the matter that he had written an appeal to the pastors of all the synagogues in the city, urging them to take an active interest in the case, and by their assistance lend influence to the movement which has been started to recover the child and restore her to her parents.

He says that if money will accomplish this sbject there will be an unlimited amount at the disposal of those who have undertaken the work, and he thinks it the duty of every liberty-loving American to help forward the movement for the repeal of the present law, which can work so much injustice.

The Society to which Mr. Weiss belongs has just issued under its seal a recommendation of his character, the duplicate of the one which was given him some time ago to give to Mr. Gerry's Society, and which the latter refused to return to him. It is as follows: We, the Dinaburger Brothers' Benevolent Association, a corporation duly organized and ex-isting under the laws of the State of New York, hereby recommend Mr. Bernard Weiss as an honest, upright and sober man. Mr. Bernard Weiss is a member of our Association and has not been in arrears since he first became such nber, and is, in our opinion, able to support family. We can state that he has been a er and industrious man for the last lifteen in our opinion, able to support can state that he has been a years.

In witness whereof, we, the President and Secretary of the Dinaburger Brothers' Benevolent Association, by resolution duly passed Feb. 9, 1889, have hereunto set our hands and affixed the seal of this Association, the day and SAMUEL TROTSKY, President. Peretz Gordon, Secretary. As a result of the publicity given to the case by the efforts of The Evening Womb several gentlemen and ladies have called upon the Weiss family at their home, 192 broome street, to satisfy themselves as to the exact state of the case.

A gentleman and two ladies called together yesterday afternoon, and after an interview with the husband, they expressed the greatest indignation at the outrage which had been

The gentleman, who declined to give his The gentleman, who declined to give his name or that of the ladies, remarking that he was acquainted with Mr. Gerry, said that he would call upon that gentleman at the earliest opportunity and lay the facts before him, and if he could not succeed in having justice done by that appeal he would employ a law-jer to bring the case before the courts. A paper is now being circulated in the neighborhood where the Weisses live, which is being signed by all those who are acquainted with Mr. Weiss and certifying to his good character and his thorough ability good character and his thorough ability

The Child Should Be Returned.

This case of little Tina Weiss is even worse than that of Josie Shephard, I feel sorry for her parents and hope THE EVENING Wonlp will never let up on this case till the child is returned to its mother.

AN OLD READER. Birmingham, Conn., Feb. 8.

" Poor Little Tinn Weiss."

To the Editor of The Econing World: It affords me great pleasure to read of the the case of poor little Tina Weiss. Your paper is the only one of the many published You every success. J. Darragh.

A Whiskey Bottle in a Dead Hand.

mie Hoffman, janitress of the lodgingbone at 20 Delancey street, found in the back Jated this morning the dead body of an unknown man. An empty whiskey bottle was clasped in one hand. The man was apparently thirty jears old, was 5 feet 7 inches in height and had brown hair and a sandy mustache.

A Happy Woman.

A Happy Woman.

Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but be per is the woman with having them, knows of the saving properties of Dr. Firence's Favorate Parscanistros. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The Favorate Parscapping corrects unnatural descharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

**

Happy Woman.

[Prom the Terre Haute Express.]

Bingley—Well, have you patented anything lately?

Inventor—Oh, yes. I have just received letters—condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The Favorate Parscapping corrects unnatural descharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

**

Inventor—Oh, yes. I have just received letters—better for my new "Prize-Fight Suspender Button." Biggest snap of the century.

Bingley—What makes you call it the "Prize-Fight Suspender Button." Biggest snap of the century.

Bingley—What makes you call it the "Prize-Fight Suspender Button." Biggest snap of the century.

Bingley—What nakes Express.]

A Genuine Sensation at the Market Investigation.

The Assistant Commissioner of Accounts Accused.

Forty-five Dollars Paid for Getting Market Stands.

Col. Hamilton Admits Receiving the Money.

Prime sport was expected at to-day's session of the Commissioners of Accounts in the investigation into the allotment of stands in the new West Washington Mardet.

The material to furnish it was present when Commissioner Holahan announced that court was open.

There was Mayor Orestes Cleveland, o Jersey City, who was a potential factor in securing stands for his brother-in-law Wm. H. Hoag: Bookkeeper Davidson, to explain mysterious entry of "barrels, on the books of his emthe $75 " ployer, Richard D. Brown; "blondheaded" Tom Campbell, Fatty Walsh's rival as a market restaurateur, and ex-Assembly-man Daniel E. Finn, who has been wanted so long to tell about his securing a stand in the new market, but who had successfully evaded the subpena-servers of Mr. Nicoli and the Commissioners until Saturday.

Mayor Cleveland was the first witness ex-

He told how he secured five stands from his brother-in law's firm.

He had known Supt. Kelso forty-three years, and visited him at his office to ask him if the rumor that stands would not be allotted if the rumor that stands would not be allotted to non-residents was frue.

Mr. Kelso said that it was, but remarked that as two of the partners resided in the State that fact might make some difference. Afterwards the witness made the application in the name of W. H. Hong & Co.

He could not explain why the permits were issued in the name of Van Doren & Co. and Russell Mass.

Russell Hoag.

Mayor Cleveland said that he had come before the Commission voluntarily to relieve the memory of his old friend, Supt. Kelso, from any imputation of wrong-doing in so far as the granting of permits for stands to his brother-in-law was concerned.

Thomas P. Farrell, of 27 West Thirty-seventh street, was the next witness called by Commissioner Holaban, and the testi-mony begun was a bomb-shell for the Com-sioners.

The witness is a member of the Tammany Hall Association of the Fifteenth Assembly He said that he had heard through M. J. Smith, a saloon-keeper at Thirty-seventh street and Eighth avenue, that it cost John Curley, a stand-holder in the new market, $50 to secure his permit.

"To whom did he pay it?" was the next question.
"To a man connected with your office at present." What man?"

"Col. Theodore Hamilton, Assistant Com-nissioner of Accounts." The witness said that he had told this story to Mayor Grant, who said that he must go before the Commissioners of Accounts and tell it, as he (the Mayor) was bound to sit this matter to the bottom and see if there had been any crookedness in the allotment of John Curley, the stand holder mentioned He testified that he applied for a stand, and through his son tried to interest Gen. F. B. Spinola in his behalf. He thinks that the General got the stand for him, for Gen. Spinola had told him so.

Col. Theodere A. Hamilton, he said, nad offered his services in assisting the witness to secure the stand and he had accepted Mr. Hamilton's help.

The Colonel claimed that he got the stand permit, but the witness believed that Gen. Spinola's influence was more potent in secur-ing it.so, "just to make things easy," he gave Col. Hamilton §45 to pay him for running around.

"Before I got my stand," the witness went on, "Col. Hamilton asked me for money,

"I told him I wouldn't pay five cents to any man in the city government, but if he wanted the money for himself I would give it to him. I gave him $25 then.

'Afterwards I gave him $10 when he asked me for it, and about Christmas time I gave him $10 more."

Mr. Cur'ey said that he had bought two boxes of cigars for $20 and presented them to Supt. Kelso, and had given $14 to Chief Clerk Graham McAdam. Col. Hamilton was next summoned to ex-plan his connection with the matter.

He said that he knows Mr. Curley. Last June Mr. Curley asked him if he could get a corner stand for him. He said: corner stand for him. He said:
"I visited Mr. Kelso's office over a dozen

"I visited Mr. Reiso's office over a dozen times about the matter. I never paid a cent to any city official. Mr. Curley gave me the money voluntarily for my services. "Mr. Curley gave $25 in September last. Afterwards, at two different times, his son gave me $10.

'I never gave Supt. Kelso or anybody else in the Finance Department any present for any specific purposes. I gave Supt. Kelso a box of Perfecto cigars. I did not give them for Mr. Curiey. I never gave Mr. McAdam $14. That's absurd. I was only making myself solid with these men. You couldn't bribe Mr. Kelso or Mr. McAdam for $35. It's absurd. [Lamphter.] men. You couldn't bribe Mr. Kelso or Mr. McAdam for $35, It's absurd. (Laughter.)
"I paid for Mr. Curley's permit out of my own money and I spent sometimes $3.50 a day in treating. I didn't make a cent out interest your valuable paper has taken in Col. Fellows Says Judge O'Brien Has Decided to Grant That Change of Venue.

M'QUADE NOT TO BE TRIED HERE.

As soon as Judge Daniels opened the Court which takes any interest in the poor. I wish of Oyer and Terminer this morning the new trial of Arthur J. McQuade was for mally moved by the District-Attorney, but as a motion to change the place of trial was pending before Judge O'Brien it was put off until to-morrow and the Court was consequently adjourned.

District Attorney Fellows informed Judge Daniels that Judge O'Brien had decided to grant the change of venue but had not fixed upon the county to which it should be sent.

Well Named.

RIVAL IN THE SLEEPING RACE | WHO MINED THE TENEMENT !

THE ATTICA WOMAN STILL LEADS, BUT GUNPOWDER, A FUSE, KEROSENE AND FIRE SHE MAY BE OVERTAKEN.

The Daughter of the Wickedest Man in Steelton on Her Eleventh Day of Slamber-Her Father Became Intensely Good and Got His Daughter to Join a Religions Sect.Fervor Causes Her Trance.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD ! Hannishung, Feb. 11.—There bids fair to house, the Attica sleeper, in the person of Lillie Bodmer, of Steelton, near here.

She has been in a trance now for eleven and immediately falling again into a state of Hester street yesterday morning.

Miss Bodmer's condition was brought on thought of it, as such cases were of frequent | between 2 and 3 a. M., found the hall full of occurrence among the peculiar sects to which | smoke. she belonged. A few hours, though, was the extent of the tranquility enjoyed by her coworshippers.

This young lady was the daughter of a very good people of the paritame spirit he was known as "Wicked John."

This most wicked man was converted, and to a church of the most pronounced orthodoxy. He joined the Church of God composed of a sect of the Dunkard order, and became as intensely good as he was before abnormally bad.

Then he exhorted his two daughters to join, and after a supreme effort got them within the fold. A week ago Friday night both "received the blessing."

A few minutes thereafter Lillie, the younger one, fell inte a trance. Her eyes became fixed and her form as rigid as though in death. As this condition is a common one among "mourners" when they receive the blessing the miscreants who put it there. This most wicked man was converted, and axed and her form as rigid as though in death.

As this condition is a common one among "mourners" when they receive the blessing in the Church of God, nothing was thought of it. She remained in the trance so long, however, that she was carried to John Parthemore's house, not far from the church, where she has lain ever since. She has returned to consciousness at intervals, but is unable to stand or see. She insists that she is in heaven and that all about her are angels.
She has taken no nourishment in all that is in heaven and that all about her are angels. She has taken no nourishment in all that time except the juice of two or three oranges and a dish of ice cream. Her checks remain full and are high in color.

The most curious part of the phenomenon is that the girl, who is hardly able to read, and who, her father declares, has never, to his knowledge, seen the inside of a Bible, because he never had one in the house next. because he never had one in the house until since, his conversion, in her conscious moments she refers to chapters in the Bible, and will repeat many passages nearly literally.

She answers rationally all questions put to her, but frequently while talking the singular rigor overcomes her, and she sinks back into the trance. On Thursday she came out of a trance and said: "Auntie will be here at 3

Her auut lives in York. No one expected Her auut lives in York. No one expected her in Steelton that afternoon, but on the arrival of the train at the bour mentioned by Lillie she appeared at the Parthemore House. Soon afterwards the girl mentioned the name of a neighbor, and said that she was fetching her some ice cream.

A few minutes later the neighbor entered the house, and had with her a plate of ice cream.

cresm.

Lillie has frequently come out of a trance, and said that such and such persons were ill in Steelton, Harrisburg and other places, and inquiry elicited that such was the fact, although the girl could have had no physical knowledge of it.

Several Harrisburg and other physicians have visited the girl and studied the case, but are madely of the physicians have visited the girl and studied the case, but are madely to explain the physicians have the physicians the physicians are provided to the physicians the physici physical laws.

She complains of no suffering, but her words and the expression of her face denote the greatest peace and happiness.

Hundreds of people from the village and surrounding country have flocked to rathemore's house to see the girl, and the profound impression it has made is manifested by the theorether have free people for the control of the control o w the throngs that besiege Pastor Keefer's church nightly seeking religion.

The pastor spends most of his time at the side of the Bodmer girl. He himself seems overwhelmed with what he calls an "awful demonstration of the divine spirit.

Three Brothers Who Don't Agree. John Dermody, aged twenty, of 428 West Twenty-sixth street, who was shot by his brother lichael, during a sort of duel in the latter's Alchael, during a sort of once in the latter's saloon, last December, was a prisoner at the Jefferson Market to-day. At 10.30 last night he was intoxicated in West Twenty-wixth street and stabled his second brother, Patrick. He was arrested by Policeman Jordan, of the Sixteenth Precinct, but the brother who had been cut did not appear against him in court to-day. On the officer's testimony, Dermody was fixed as

For the Parnell Defense.

The Irish Parliamentary Fund Association which, under the energetic leadership of Mr. Eugene Kelly, raised in a few months nearly $275,000, is again in the field raising money for the Parcell Defense Fund. There was be a meet-ing at the Hoffman House this evening, where the Committee will cordially welcome all friends and supporters of the cause.

Fordham's Coming Celebration. The Fordham Club will commemorate the birthday of the Father of his Country with a banquet in their beautiful club-house on Creston avenue. The guest of the evening will be Park Commissioner Stephenson Towle, who will re-spond to the loast. The Future of the Twenty-Commissioner Stephenson Towle, who will re spend to the toast, "The Future of the Twenty, foorth Ward," The tickets are already sub-scribed for. Mazetti will cater.

The Venerable Cardinal Pitra Dead. A cablegram to the Catholic News of this city unonness the death of Cardinal John Baptiste Pitra, who was the second in rank in the Sacred College. He was born at Champforguil, France, on Aug. 16, 1812. He was made Cardinal March 16, 1863, and was eine of the six Suf-fragon Dishops of the Homan Pontiff.

Dr. Flavious Scarle Dead. INPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, 1 SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 11,-Dr. Flavious learle, aged seventy-four, the oldest dentist in the city, died here yesterday moon of neuralgia of the heart. He had been in active practice up to ten days ago for fifty years.

Ninety-Eight Hoys Escaped. Two boys, James Beilly, aged seventeen, and Frederick Sheehan, aged lifteen, were fined $3 and $5, respectively, at Jefferson Market to-day, or complicity with about a hundred other boys in a riotous attack on Joseph Petro, an Italian waffle peddler in Seventh avenue. We Wan't Crew Yet.

[From the Boston Pourser.] Tis evident Winter's still here, tra la, For semetimes it gives us a sting; Tis a little two early we fear, tea la. For the flowers that bloom in the Bpring. Ho; ho; there's no Winter at all, tra la, We laughed in the gayest of meeds. Perhaps we had better sing small, tra la, Until we are out of the woods.

Clever Detectives in Search of the Devillsh Hester Street Incendiary-Two Strange Men Were Seen Loltering About the House at Night Talking Significantly Was It Revenge?

Two of the brightest men on Inspector Byrnes's staff, Ward Detective Shalvey, of be a fermidable rival of Mrs. Emma Alt. the Delancey street station, and Fire Marshall Mitchell, were hard at work this morning endeavoring to find some clue to the fiend or fiends who attempted to burn the days, opening her eyes only at long intervals five-story brick double tenement-house 7

Samuel Trainer, who trades in second-hand goods at that address, discovered the fire. by religious frenzy. At first nothing was He says he was out late, and returning home

> He rushed into the street and notified Policeman Carey,

The latter got a fireman from an enginehouse near by, and then the two returned to wicked father. He bore the reputation of the house. Down in the cellar, stuffed bebeing the wickedest man in Steelton. To the | tween a lot of old boxes and a joist, Carey and the fireman found a heap of smoking rags just about ready to burst into a blaze. They were saturated with kerosene. Near although that may have been the intention of the miscreamts who put it there.

What may turn out to be a clue to the men who did the deed is furnished by Lena Lichman, wife of a restaurant keeper there, and Yetta Harris, the daughter of the house keeper. She says that about 11 o'clock on Saturday night two men, unknown to her, stopped in front of the house, and one said:

"We will sleep here to night." One was tall, the other short and stont, and wore a round felt hat.

The latter asked his companion:

"Is this the house?"

"Yes, this is it, sure," was the answerr Later Miss Harris, going into the back yard to draw some water from the pump there, saw the same men standing close together, as if trying to conceal themselves.

f trying to conceal themselves.

The women think they are saw the same men standing close together, as if trying to conceal themselves.

The women think they are the men who wanted to burn the house.

About twenty families live there, and a frightful loss of life would surely have ensued had the flames gained any headway. In a rear frame house half a dozen other families lived, and some of them would surely have suffered also.

The motive which could prompt such a distardly deed is the mystery which puzzles the police. The occupants are mostly Polish Jews, quiet and inoffensive.

There is a story of a disagreement between two of the families in the house, but no one believes that the feeling is bitter enough to prompt such a deed for revenge, especially as the parties in the case are both family men, living in the same house, who would be in as much danger as any one else.

EXTRAVAGANT WASTE OF GAS.

Young Man and Woman Nearly Suffocated at Hall's Hotel. The porter at Hall's Hotel came rushing downstairs at 6 o'clock this morning and ex-There is a lot of gas escaping on the second floor. I've traced it to room 17, but it is locked and they don's answer the knock." "Break in the door," said the clerk. William Ready, the night porter, proved equal to his name, and smashed in the portal. A young man and woman were lying in a Angeli said he must have turned on the gas after he had turned it off. He disclaimed all idea that they had come to the hotel for the purpose of suicide.

Happily for the young pair the transom was slightly ajar, so that they are spared to pay the gas bill. Otherwise they would have un-doubtedly been asphayaired. They are both doing well at the hospital and will be sent away some time to-day. Hereafter "Mr. and Mrs. Lieb "will not be so extravagant in the matter of gas.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

A Helpless Sick Woman Attacked by Ro dents and Terribly Mutilated.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I PROVIDENCE, Feb. 11.—One of the most horrible cases that the police of this city have ever known came before them on Friday night, when they were called by residents of Webster street to No. 61 on that thoronoh.

At a hovel at that number resides Julia

Mahan, aged fifty-six, and her husband John, a man, who, it is said, has lived from John, a man, who, it is said, has lived from his wife's earnings for a long time.

Mrs. Mahan was stricken with paralysis about four weeks ago and has been lying helpless ever since and deserted. Police who went to Mrs. Mahan's bediade found that the place was infested with ravenous rats and that they swarned in the sick woman's bed. Her note and cheeks had been caten away and the jaw bone was left bare. When the mearre covering of the bed had been raised a dozen rats came out from under it, and then it was found that the sick woman's limbs had also been eaten.

The flesh was gnawed from her thighs, and the woman had been for hours helpless to drive away the redents.

Capt. Lagan sent Mrs. Coughlin to care for the woman has night. This morning a lighted candle was left in the room and ten it caviriage at the fire, which blazed cheerfully in their midst.

The thought is help the pround about twenty feet from the track on the river side.

They seemed to a following graphic description of the cocurrence. He said:

"The train was bounding along at the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brage and beginning.

"The train was bounding along at the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brage the will man bridge at a fix by dighting.

"The train was bounding along at the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brage the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brages and laght of inch places are for hearly site with subming and such that the sick woman's limbs the dige that the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brages and laght the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brages and laght the rate of nearly afty miles an hour. We left Mount Vernon at 5.10 a. m. We passed Williams-brages and laght the rate of nearly afty m drive away the redents.

Capt. Fagan sent Mrs. Coughlin to care for the woman last night. This morning a lighted caudle was left in the room and ten minutes later it had been carried off by the rats.
Mrs. Mahon died this forenoon.

2 O'CLOCK.

EXPLOSION

Panic and Terror on a New Haven Train.

Dynamite Blown Up Near Williamsbridge.

Car Windows Blown to Fragments and Passengers Cut,

Said to Be Caused by Italians Thawing Cartridges.

A terrific explosion occurred about 9.15 o'clock this morning at a point midway be. tween Williamsbridge and Bedford Park, on the line of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, just as the train from Stamford, Conn., which is due in this city at .40 A. M., passed there.

The train, made up of five passenger coaches and a baggage car, was nearly blown off the rails. If it had been a frightful loss of life would have ensued, as there were about five hundred men, women and children on board. As it was a miracle only prevented loss of Every window on both sides in the four forward coaches was blown out as clean as if cut away with a glazier's diamond. Nearly every window was shattered in the baggage car, the engine and last car only escaping uninjured.

The majority of the passengers were cut and bruised more or less seriously by the flying glass, and the heavy jolting of the It was nearly brought to a standstill by the

It was nearly brought to a standstill by the force of the concussion, and the engineer found little difficulty in halting his machine. The scene, as he looked behind from his cab window, was an exciting one.

Every one of the big cars were tossing and tumbling from side to side, like a large ship in a furious storm.

It seemed as if they would never stop either.

either.

The ground trembled. Ta'll trees shivered as if beaten by a gale of wind.

The air was thick with flying stones that darted hither and thither, with the speed and manner of a flock of frightened birds.

Some of these stones could not have been lifted by less than six or seven men, yet they were thrown to a great distance by the force of the explosion.

of the explosion.

Many of the stones pattered down on the cars like a heavy shower of bail, but fortunately none that fell this way were heavy enough to break through the car roofs. The widest excitement prevailed in the cars. Men prayed and swore, Women fainted and children cried.

The day of judgment has come. Pray, sinners, pray."
This added to the excitement, and for a few seconds it seemed as if the stronger would trample the weaker in their mad efforts to get out somewhere—anywhere.

They did not know and did not care where they wanted to go. They rushed around with the control of the care where they wanted to go. they wanted to go. They rushed around madly, blindly. One man kept jumping over the seats, back unconscions of their situation, though still gasping.

An ambulance call was sent to Chambers
Street Hospital, and when the surgeon arrived they were both revived and carried

One man kept jumping over the seats, back and for h until his senses returned.

To add to the terror of the scene, those who were injured were cut mostly about the face, and they presented a terrible spectacle as they ran about with the blood besmearing their cheeks and dripping over the seats, back and for h until his senses returned.

The rascals under Legitime won't fight," they don't know when the said, "they don't know one end of agun from another."

B. C. Morse, agent of the Company, said that the steamer's sale arrival was due principle. Only for the coolness of a few passengers on the train the others would have surely in-

They came to the hotel last night about 12.30. They were well dressed, and the young man wore a resplendent tail hat. He registered as "W. E. W. Lieb and wite. City." The young man gave his watch and $15 to the clerk to be put in the safe.

This morning the young man gave his name as William Angell, and said he lived at Summer and Greene avenues, Brocklyn. He is nineteen years old, and is a telegraph operator.

The young woman was Miss May Donglass, also a Brooklynite. When she got to the hospital, however, she was Mary Walker, of 117 West Twenty-fourth street.

Angell said he must have turned on the gas writing, was seriously injured. It is name is Taylor. He lives at New Rochelle.

A fragment of glass was driven into the right temple. He pulled it out, whereupon the blood began to gush forth. Fortunately there was a physician on the rain. Dr. Hayward, of Pelham, dressed the train. Dr. Hayward, of Pelham, dressed t cut and stooped the flow of blood, otherw the injured man would have bled to death.

many of them covered with blood.

They described their sensation as if suffering from a severe fit of sensekness, and it had much the same effect on more than a few of them. Some of the more venturesome ones then began to look for the cause of the explosion. In that vicinity they are thisting rock in order to lay a double track, and some people ascribe the explosion to carelessness on the part of those doing the blasting.

Another theery entertained by many is that it was, an explosion of a huge dynamic car.

Justice Delcambye thinks so for one. He was a passenger on the interest of the sense of the sense of the sense of the first of their sense of the first of the sense of the sense of the first of the sense of the sense of the first of the sense of the sense of the first of the sense of the first of the sense of the first of the sense o Before the train came to a full stop many of the men were jumping off the cars or throwing themselves out of the train through the shattered windows.

When it was stopped every one struggled was a passenger on the train.

When interviewed by an Evenino World reporter, he gave the following graphic de-fully in their midst,

"The thought flashed through my mind.

Inmates of a Burning Hotel Escape in Nightclothes.

Flames Eat Up the Wave Crest at Far Rockaway.

A Village Fireman Severely Injured While on Duty.

FAR ROCKAWAY, Feb. 11. - The Wave Crest Itotel was burned early this morning, the fire being discovered at about 4 o'clock. The hotel was one of the largest in the place and was owned by ex-Assemblyman Edward Darragh. The loss was $10,000 which is said to be fully covered by insurwind was blowing. Soon after its discovery, the big building was entirely wrapped in flames, while in little less than half an hour it lay in ruins.

their night-clothes. Some of them leaped from the second-story windows. So fiercely did the fire rage when at its

The inmates had barely time to escape in height that the United States Hotel and other buildings in the immediate vicinity, were seriously threatened.

The local Fire Department and the hotel watchmen fought the flames vigorously and did much towards saving the neighboring structures. Leander Peti, of Oceanic Hose No. 1, was seriously injured while on duty.

The cause of the fire is as yet unknown.

There had been a litigation in progress over

*There had been a litigation in progress over the property for some time. A Mrs. Cleary claimed to have a titla to the property, and had brought proceedings in foreclosure.

Both claimants held insurance policies, and an interesting legal question will now The building stood in Coster street, near the inlet. It was a three-story frame struc-THE HAYTIAN REPUBLIC.

Her Captain and Agent Have Something to Say-They Don't Think Much of Legitime. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Boston, Feb. 11. - The Haytian Republic arrived in Boston Harbor last night. The vessel laid to in the harbor until daylight. A tug chartered for the purpose conveved the EVENING WORLD correspondent now an historic and world-tamed vessel, to her side some time after midnight. Capt. Compton, the resolute commander who has stuck to his ship through thick and thin, was on deck and greeted his visitor cordially. He tacked freely of the difficulty he had en-

He taiked freely of the difficulty he had encountered in the region of the "blacks," Said he:

"The reason my ship was seized was that we had on board four delegates to the Presidential Convention. These gentlemen were passengers from New York, and Legitime or dered them seized at at any cost. You see, Legitime had declared himself elected, and all he required to legalize the self-declared all he required to legalize the sent-decipred election was just four votes, and we had that number on board, fortunately for him and unfortunately for us. We had made no attempt to run the blockade. In fact, knew the beginning, and they were watched by de-nothing about it. I knew, for a fact, that the order to seize the ship was given eight days before our arrival at Port au Prince He expressed the opinion that if Hippolyte could get the Carondelet, now being detained at New York, he would wipe Legitline com-pletely out of existence. "The rascals under Legitline would fight," that the steamer's safe arrival was due pron-cipally to the indefat gable exertions of the chief engineer, who had worked night and day fixing up the machinery. The fixytians had plundered the ship of many of its con-nections and robbed her in spite of the vigilance of the captain himself In answer to a question as to the situation at present in Havti, Mr. Morse said the prospects were not very encouraging.

A PRINCESS BORN IN TWELFTH STREET. Of the Royal House of Hawaii and a New Yorker's Daughter. The Rev. Dr. Alexander treated the gregation of the Univer-ity Place Presbyterian Church yesterday morning to a gen- and in Scotland over the supposed capture of uine surprise by christening the infant of a ... Jack the Ripper." genuine Princess by birth and heritage.

An olive-complexioned, black-eyed, chub

Grumble. The furriers and icemen are not the only of ones who are complaining of the mild weather this Winter. The coal dealers are just as much dissatisfied as either of them. "I've never seen such a Winter as this,"

Jack the Ripper Said to Be Under Arrest.

O'CLOCK.

ANOTHER HORROR.

The fire made rapid progress, as a high Murder at Dundee in the Terrible Whitechapel Style.

> The Mutilated Victim Was This Time Found in a Box.

> She Had Come from London with the Alleged Murderer and Mysteriously Disappeared.

> Intense Excitement in London Over the Sensational Reports.

SPECIAL CAULE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. London, Feb. 11.-Another woman murder nd mutilation has been discovered and the probable murderer arrested.

The murder is similar in its details to those committed in Whitechapel. It is possible that the man arrested is the Whitechapel fiend, " Jack the Ripper." The following are the circumstances so far as made known by the police : A man and a woman whose names are unknown came to Dundee, Scotland, three Suspicion was directed against them from weeks ago and took a small house. They Recently the woman disappeared. The detectives had not seen her leave the house, and no traces could be found of her departure. Yesterday the man was arrested and the house searched, when it was discovered that a murder had been committed. A box in the besement was broken open by the police and in it was found the body of and the missing woman.

The head had been cut off, the legs ampu-

The awful work bore all the appearance of orse said the pros- having been done by the same hand that perpetrated the successive horrors in London. There is reason to believe that the man now tated and the stomach ripped open.

in custody is that man.

The police authorities however maintain LATER.-Great excitement prevails here

The latest news from Dundee is anxiously by-faced girl of nine months nestled in being awaited here, and all the dailies have entertained about a year ago, and it was decided to negate Barchy to meet with his class in the school if he desired to, but there was to be no fellowship with him till be confessed to the charges of immorality nd wrong-doing. The still proclams his innocence.

Sorlery at Mrs. Bigelow's Faneral.

The famousl of Mrs. Jame Poultney Bigelow, wife of ex-Minister John Bigelow, took place

"If all our winters were like this one, the coal dealer would soon become bankrupt.

"Take as an example the New York Steam Hesting Company. They use thousands of tons of coal every month, and I understand that they used 100 tons less every day this Winter than any former season. The mid weather has the same effect all around.

"There is not so much coal used in the big fat houses, and the poor men don't have to buy so much by the pail."

"Bereias Church. Among these presents were Vicz-President-elect Levi P. Morton, ex-Nayor Hewitt, Col. S. V. R. United Steam Hewitt, Col. S. V. R. United Review Hewitt, Col. S. V.

"The thought flashed through my mind.
"That thought flashed through my mind.
"That infernal thing might explode. Then where would those brigandish-looking fellows be?

"That thouses, and the poor men don't have to buy so much by the pail. Perhaps the warm Winter is a blessing for the poor, but it's just running the coal trade, I can tell you."

"Shaken by Reference to the Experime words."

London, Feb. 11.—An earthquake shock was fell at Holton and Manchester to-day. No dame age was done.

To the Editor of The Evening World :